FACILITATOR GUIDE

A standard Learning Everywhere experience

Every Couch Scholar lesson can follow the same consistent structure.

Before the experience

- ☐ A brief introduction
- ☐ A learning focus
- ☐ One or two guiding questions
- ☐ Optional background information

During the experience

- ☐ Notice key moments
- ☐ Record observations
- ☐ Identify questions
- ☐ Pay attention to your reactions

After the experience

- ☐ Observe — what happened?
- ☐ Connect — why does it matter to me?
- ☐ Analyze — what explains it?
- ☐ Apply — how can I use this insight?
- ☐ Reflect — how has my understanding changed?

WORKSHEET

The reusable worksheet

Use it with any show, film, book, meeting, or trip. Print it, copy it, or keep it beside you while you watch.

Experience

What did you watch, read, hear, visit, or experience?

1. Observe

What stood out? Include specific details, actions, words, or moments.

2. Connect

What personal, professional, academic, cultural, or historical connections can you make?

3. Analyze

What does the experience mean? What factors, perspectives, tensions, or assumptions should be examined?

4. Apply

How could you use this learning in another setting? Identify one concrete action or decision.

5. Reflect

What changed in your understanding? What question or learning goal remains?
